About Us.

Established in 2006, Nochumson P.C. is a team of attorneys whose golden rule is to "treat others like how you would like to be treated."

For us, a people-first approach means clients are treated like family, friends, and neighbors—not just another name in the system. We become invested in these connections, offering sensible and cost-effective representation to help members of the community achieve their goals.

Alan prides himself on providing his clients with practical and creative solutions to even the most complex of issues. As an attorney, author, and lecturer, he practices, makes, and teaches the law. Alan thinks like a chess player, always anticipating what is next. He is compulsively early, unflappable under pressure and tough but fair. He also loves to play matchmaker, introducing his clients to business partners and investors who can help them grow their businesses.

Natalie Klyashtorny

Natalie calms the rattled, encourages the discouraged, and leads by example. Most of all, she loves getting results for her clients. Natalie has played a significant leadership role in the Philadelphia legal community, and has extensive experience as an attorney in the region. Her clients find it reassuring to know that when she walks into a courtroom, she most likely has already appeared before the presiding judge, knows opposing counsel, and understands how to work with them both.

We are not just legal counsel.

We are real people who treat clients like friends and family.

“ Professional, accessible, personable and extremely knowledgeable. It was a pleasure dealing with Nochumson P.C., as my lawyers. I highly recommend them for any of your real estate needs. Not only were they experts in their advise given, but they were very responsive in the times I needed them! ”
