

SOFIA CALABRESE

Sofia is an associate attorney at Nochumson P.C., where she brings the focus, discipline, and drive of a former Division I athlete to the courtroom. A natural competitor and team leader, Sofia thrives in high-stakes environments, using her sharp analytical skills and practical mindset to guide clients through complex litigation with confidence and clarity.

Sofia earned her J.D. from Syracuse University College of Law, where she made the Dean's List and served as Executive Editor of the Journal of International Law and Commerce. She also earned a Certification in Estate Planning, adding depth and versatility to her legal toolkit.

Before law school, Sofia graduated from Villanova University with a B.A. in Political Science and a minor in Communication. A standout both in the classroom and on the track, she was named to the Dean's List, the All-Big East Academic Team, and the Dean of Athletics Honor Roll. As captain of the Villanova Track and Field team, she competed in the heptathlon and earned multiple Big East podium finishes, including First Team All-Big East honors. Her early involvement in the Pre-Law Society reflected a long-standing passion for the legal field, which she deepened through rigorous academic study, leadership, and a commitment to justice that ultimately led her to pursue a career in law.

Sofia is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and she continues to build a strong litigation practice grounded in preparation, precision, and client advocacy.
