

Sherry Olin Lemonick

As a Senior Counsel to Nochumson P.C., Sherry focuses her practice on business contracts, corporate transactions, real estate, venture capital, private equity, bank financing, and healthcare law.

Starting her career as a staff accountant for Coopers & Lybrand and David H. Solis CPA, Sherry acquired significant experience in finance and accounting. After law school, Sherry started her career at Pepper Hamilton, where she spent over 9 years in the corporate department.

During the 1990s, Sherry served as the Director of Legal Services for Clinical Care and Associates of the University of Pennsylvania Health System. Here she was responsible for all legal aspects of a primary care network that employed over 1,500 people in 75 locations.

Sherry then transitioned back to a firm environment to serve as Of Counsel at Blank Rome LLP. She provided services for clients on all phases of business transactions. After her time at Blank Rome, Sherry served as Of Counsel at Philadelphia-based Klehr Harrison Harvey Branzburg LLP, providing legal services in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, commercial financing (asset-based lending, real estate financing, refinancing, and restructuring), and various healthcare deals. She was also responsible for continuing legal education for the firm's corporate department.

During the first year that she opened her own practice, Sherry represented the United States Treasury in connection with the Small Business Lending Fund assisting with closing 23 transactions with community banks nationwide during the TARP era.

As an influential and inspiring speaker, Sherry has spoken, moderated, and conducted classes, workshops, and panels for over 10 years. Her teaching and speaking portfolio include engagements at Villanova Law School, Drexel University School of Law, Wharton School of Business, BarBri, Early Stage East, and the BioLife Conference. She recently gave a webinar regarding all aspects of the CARES Act, including the Paycheck Protection Program.

Sherry has published articles in the Philadelphia Business Journal regarding business disputes and corporate divorce. She was also the Senior Editor of Pennsylvania Corporation Law and Practice, and the Editor of Legal Issues in Healthcare.

Sherry is a board member of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and the Ben Franklin Technology Investment Advisory Committee.

She is currently admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Sherry holds a B.S. degree in accounting from Boston College, and a J.D. degree from Villanova University School of Law.
