

Clementa Amazan

Clementa Amazan is an Associate Attorney at Nochumson P.C., where she has a knack for providing thorough and creative solutions to a variety of legal issues as well as communicating with people – the easygoing and the difficult alike – which makes her a valuable asset for her clients.

Prior to joining Nochumson P.C., Clementa was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Lisette Shirdan-Harris, the Supervising Judge of the Civil Trial Division of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas. In that capacity, Clementa began her comprehensive understanding of the inner workings of our judicial system in Philadelphia and beyond.

In addition, Clementa provides pro-bono legal assistance to artists and arts and cultural organizations through the Philadelphia Volunteer Lawyer for the Arts, where she gives advice on entity creation, reviews contracts to protect intellectual property, and completes patent applications.

Her ability to speak conversational Spanish and her fluency in Haitian Kreyol also allows her to effectively serve as legal counsel to a broad cross-section of communities and on behalf of her clients.

Clementa is also a leader within the legal community. This past year, she served as a co-chair of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Breakfast, which was sponsored by the Barristers' Association of Philadelphia. In addition to being actively involved with the Barristers' Association of Philadelphia, she also participates in activities with the Pennsylvania Bar Association Women's Law Division.

Clementa is admitted to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

She holds a B.A. degree in English Literature from Villanova University and a J.D. degree from the Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law.
