Tamarrin Johnson

As the daughter of entrepreneurs, Tamarrin Johnson has dedicated her practice to assisting companies of all sizes address their legal needs. Tamarrin works closely with clients to fully understand their business, practice, and needs to position matters for optimal outcomes. She values her clients' time and resources, which better assists her in advising on effective legal strategies.

Before joining Nochumson P.C. Tamarrin practiced in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, concentrating on commercial and business litigation, including representing companies and entities in a broad range of civil matters in state and federal court.

Tamarrin received a bachelor's degree in English, with high honors, from Lincoln University of Pennsylvania. Tamarrin graduated from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law. While in law school, she served as Associate Editor of the Villanova Environmental Law Journal and as Chief of Staff for the National Black Law Students Associations.

Tamarrin is admitted to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.
